U. N.'s Malik to Address World Affairs at Asilomar

Dr. Charles Malik of Lebanon, president of the 13th United Nations General Assembly, yesterday accepted an invitation to speak at the 14th Annual Conference of the World Affairs Council of Northern California.

The meeting will be held May 6 to 8 at Asilomar on the Monterey Peninsula.

Other leading speakers will include Dean Rusk, president of the Rockefeller Foundation; Lyman Kirkpatrick, inspector-general of the Central Intelligence Agency; and Richard Hottelet, Columbia Broadcasting System news correspondent.

Persons interested in attending can call YU 2-2541 for reservations.
